

Hans-Christoph Diener, MD, PhD is Professor of Neurology and Chairman of the Department of Neurology and Co-chairman of Non-surgical Intensive Care Medicine at the University of Duisburg-Essen, Germany. He is Chairman of the West-German Headache Center, Essen Stroke Center, Essen Pain Clinic, Essen Vertigo and Dizziness Center. He is the Past President of the German Neurological Society, European Headache Federation and International Headache Society. Prof. Diener chairs the German Headache Consortium and the German Stroke Data Bank. Dr. Diener's special research interests focus on headache, stroke and cerebellar physiology. Prof. Diener has authored or coauthored 855 articles, 177 as first author, in peer reviewed journals (19 in the NEJM), 310 invited reviews, and 3332 book chapters, and served as the editor or author of 77 books. His h index is 99.